Welcome to the Bayou Deli! We want everyone to know what exactly we are all about. There are misconceptions of Cajun cooking. For example, "It's too hot," "It's too spicy," or "I don't like fried foods." Acadian (Cajun) Cuisine is filled with exotic and succulent, yet subtle, herbs and spices that bring out the natural flavor of the food. It is slow cooked, blackened, grilled and sometimes fried. Bayou Deli is a family owned and operated restaurant that wants to give our customers a delectable and unique taste of New Orleans. Our entrees are cooked fresh every day.
